CONSENT TO PUBLISH AND COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

It is required that the authors of articles in Kyushu Journal of Mathematics provide a formal written Consent to Publish. The signed Consent to Publish gives the Publisher permission of the Author to publish the Work. The signed Transfer of Copyright empowers the Publisher to protect the Work against unauthorized use, and also covers dissemination of the Work by secondary information sources such as abstracting, reviewing and indexing.

1. The Author hereby grants the Publisher permission to publish the Work in Kyushu Journal of Mathematics.
2. The Author hereby confirms the following:
   a. the Work has not been published before in any form except for a preprint, and is not being concurrently submitted to and is not under consideration by another publisher;
   b. the Work does not libel anyone, infringe on anyone's copyright, or otherwise violate anyone's statutory.
3. The Author herein transfers to the Publisher the copyright of the Work, whereby the Publisher shall have exclusive and unlimited right to publish the Work and to have it translated wholly or in part throughout the world. The Work may not be published in print or electronically, or become part of any library's collection in print or electronically, without permission of the Publisher.
4. The manuscript version of the Work may be reproduced for educational and scientific purposes by the Author, or by others without fee or permission; any such reproduction of the Work must include a notice indicating copyright and the original publication by the Publisher.
5. If the Work has more than one credited author, then the corresponding author signs on behalf of all credited authors.
