

On multi-colored fluctuation field scaling limits

Sunder SETHURAMAN, University of Arizona

In zero-range interacting particles systems, with differently colored particles, we consider the coupled fluctuation fields of the mass of the various colored particles, and their scaling limits, when starting from an invariant measure. In a certain regime, one may obtain a type of 'coupled' SPDE Burgers equation.